ZSE sinks further...

The ZSE extended loses in Thursday trades as the main stream Industrial Index succumbed to a 0.27% drop to 131.50pts while the Mining index slipped deeper into the red after shedding 3.05% and settling at 25.15pts. The overly bearish sentiment on the bourse was the negative breadth of 7 stocks arising from a shakers only outturn with no gainers in the session. Industrials were weighed down by continued sell offs in market heavies including Delta, SeedCO, CBZ and BAT. Delta lost 0.47% to $0.8250 while SeedCO breached the $1.0000 market on a sudden spat of supply and traded at $0.9950 where demand could be established but ended well offered. Banking group CBZ was down 0.79% at $0.0883c and cigarette manufacturers BAT shed 1.28% and closed at $11.5500. Headlining the Industrial losses were Padenga and Willdale that retreated 5.56% and 5.26% and closed at $0.0850 and $0.0018 respectively. Minings were let down by nickel miners Bindura that fell by a shakers topping 6.25% and closed the day exchanging hands at $0.0150

The market saw an improvement in activity for the day with volumes of day ballooning 380% to 2,464,893 shares buoyed by banking group CBZ that led with an 80.25% contribution to the aggregate. Other notable volumes were exchanged in Bindura and Willdale. Values surged 488% to $286,195 with CBZ again emerging the top driver at a contribution of 61.02% while other reasonable trades were in Delta 19.47%, and SeedCO 17%. Locals dominated trades as inflows for the day amounted to $101,762 representing 35.56% while outflows stood at $79,020 which was 27.61%. Foreign activity was predominantly in Delta and SeedCO on both buy and sell sides while the day's anchor trades in CBZ were wholly local to local exchanges.
